Semester Programs

Semester programs are an excellent way to see a country for a long period of time. Students typically participate for a semester or academic year.

UW-Green Bay offers two types of semester programs: exchange programs and direct enrollment programs. Please see reverse side for program options.

UW-Green Bay Exchange Programs

Exchange programs are created on the basis of exchanging students with a partner university. Students pay UW-Green Bay tuition and are able to attend another university for a semester or academic year.

- Denmark
- Chile
- France (Bordeaux or Marseille)
- Germany (Hessen area)
- Germany (Kassel)
- Japan (Tokyo)
- México
- Netherlands
- Spain (León)

UW-Green Bay Direct Enrollment Programs

Direct enrollment programs are completely administered by UW-Green Bay and are created by a partnership between UW-Green Bay and a host university. Students pay host university tuition and attend for a semester or academic year.

- Japan (Osaka)
- New Zealand
- Spain (Bilbao)
- Scotland (Aberdeen)
- Scotland (Glasgow)
- Scotland (Stirling)
- Mexico Student Teaching
- International Student Teaching
- Italy
- London (UK) Internship

Interim Programs (Summer/Winter)

Interim programs are intensive study experiences administered through our partner institutions during interim periods such as summer or winter break.

Options include a language course, students are placed at an appropriate level from beginner to advanced. (Except Scotland and France)

- France (Multiple locations Summer School) -5 credits, approximately 3 weeks

- Scotland (Glasgow International Summer School– ISS) -Multiple length/credit options, average 3 credits/3 weeks
- Scotland (Stirling International Summer School– ISS) -6-12 credit programs, 4 or 8 week option, internships
- Spain (Bilbao) -6-7 credits, approximately 4 weeks, Spanish or English

Faculty-led Travel Courses

Travel courses are short term programs that are taught and led by a UW-Green Bay faculty and/or staff member. Programs are typically 2 to 4 weeks in duration, department specific, and vary from year to year. These courses occur during the winter, summer, and spring breaks.

Students from all majors are welcome to apply for most programs. Programs can also fulfill General Education requirements.

Check website for current offerings.

Examples of past travel courses:

- Argentina (Spanish)
- Chile (Environmental Science & Sustainability)
- Ecuador (Global Studies or Urban & Regional Studies)
- England (English)
- Germany (Human Biology)
- Ireland (Theatre)
