1 Lost Lady: The Lady Elgin Tragedy

Location: Manitowoc

Classroom: Manitowoc Campus F170

Presenter: Paul Timm

Coordinator: Pati Wiegand

Date(s): 8/12

Time: 10 a.m.-12 p.m.

Limit: 35

Lost Lady: The Lady Elgin tragedy tells the background story of the politics, history, and legacy, which led to the worst disaster to ever occur on the Great Lakes. Two key characters of the 1860 story are passengers 10-year-old Mary Fahey and her friend, Willie Barry, the son of Captain Garrett Barry, commander of the Irish militia. The book, authored by Paul Timm under the name Paul Hollander, was released in 2018 and made headlines throughout Wisconsin.

This is a new class offering that will take one on a study of Green Bay's storied history from the times of First Nation peoples up into the 21st Century. Themes presented will include Great Lakes Cartography from the 17th Century, First Nations settlement, colonial rule, Ft. Howard, City development, industry, education, religion, cultural events and others. Powerpoint, maps and graphics will aid here.

3 Lewis and Clark: All the Stars Aligned

Location: Manitowoc

Classroom: Manitowoc Campus F170

Presenter: Paul Timm

Coordinator: Becky Lowry

Date(s): 8/12

Time: 1-3 p.m.

Limit: 35

In 1803, President Jefferson was responsible for the acquisition of the Louisiana Purchase. He would send

Lewis and Clark, along with the Corps of Discovery, to search for the Northwest Passage, map the territory, meet with native tribes, and record flora and fauna. The journey was equivalent to putting a man on the moon in the 1960s. Come along on a tour of this incredible journey, with a slideshow that incorporates past and present, and discover much more than what was in your history book.

Date(s): 9/09, 9/16
Time: 10 a.m.-12 p.m. first day; 10-11 a.m. second day
Limit: 45

Created while Wisconsin was still a territory, the Fox-Wisconsin waterway was part of a grand plan to extend the Erie Canal west to the Mississippi River. This project would open up export markets for area mills and producers, transport troops and bring immigrants to the area. Although the original plan didn’t live up to its expectations, most of the seventeen locks still operate. The first class will tell the locks’ story with videos, photographs and newspaper clippings. The second class will take place at the De Pere lock by Voyager Park where you will see how the lock operates.

11 Try America’s Fastest - Growing Sport: Pickleball!

It's a fact that seniors who get out and about and have activities and interests are much happier, less lonely, and tend to be healthier than those who have nothing to do all day. Try board games, dice games, number/word games, or others that might intrigue you to explore.

32 Music in Film (N)

Location: Green Bay
Classroom: Green Bay Campus Christie Theatre
Presenter: Janet Hathaway, PhD
Coordinator: Jim Hinckley

(N) - New Course

Date(s): 11/04
Time: 10 a.m.-12 p.m.
Limit: 150

The nature of film music has changed since the advent of silent film with its live accompaniment, but the various roles music plays within movies have remained relatively constant. Music serves to establish setting, heighten emotion, underscore or foreshadow narrative elements, even comment ironically on characters or action, all while engaging the audience more deeply in the film. This class will begin with a historical overview of music in film, keeping in mind the relationship of film music to other cultural currents (Romanticism, jazz, popular song). To illustrate how music can function in a movie, we will draw examples from notable composers, including several with Academy Award recognition.

33 Spectrum of Attitudes and Lenses in Biblical Interpretation

Location: Green Bay

Time: 1-3 p.m.
Limit: 25

This ongoing class continues to be a favorite for both new and seasoned writers. We start with short writing exercises to warm up. Memoirs are simply “stories from our life,” not our entire life story. We write short vignettes about something that happened to us, whether 50 years ago or just recently. We devote plenty of time listening to the stories of our class members. Each semester we explore ways to improve our writing, have guest speakers or consider publishing options. Whether you’ve written for years or have just “written checks,” we want to hear from you.

Presenter: Steve Mayer
Coordinator: Gary Lewins
Date(s): 11/20
Time: 10 a.m.-12 p.m.
Limit: 150

“Sleeping well at night” knowing you are invested wisely and paying only necessary taxes are implicit goals for many people. Belief that we are achieving these goals can be elusive. We trust our financial advisors and tax preparers to be our fiduciaries (act in our best behalf, put our interests ahead of their own). Are they? Do they talk to each other or are you the go between or DIY'er? Knowledge is Power. Using fellow retiree case studies as the course basis, this course is intended to help you “sleep better at night” by better empowering you to ask confident questions of your financial advisors and tax preparers. The intent is education/empowerment. THIS IS NOT TAX OR FINANCIAL ADVICE.

123 Christmas 3-D Paper Creations

Location: Green Bay
Classroom: Green Bay Campus Rose Hall 220

EXTRAORDINARY LIVES DESERVE EXCEPTIONAL CARE

Age doesn't define rules for the life we lead. It doesn't set a deadline for learning, engagement or experiences. At Rennes Group, age simply represents the extraordinary lives we're honored to care for every day.

We're guided by a promise to our residents, a commitment to deliver exceptional care focused upon dignity, respect and compassion, that creates meaningful experiences and memories. We believe lifelong learning, new experiences and community engagement enhances our residents' lives. We believe they deserve nothing less than exceptional.

Our partnership with the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay's Lifelong Learning Institute delivers upon this promise through community engagement and life enrichment. After all, our stories are still being written, and we're happy to help fill the pages.
