d) Executive Board Confirmations

- Academic Affairs - vacant
- Arts and Performance – Kayla Kelling – Nominated by higher up in Weidner Center. Big plans and many friends who want to see change as well. Want to collaborate with writing and psych department so they come to the galleries on campus. Writing department can work on interviewing.
- Environmental Affairs – Molly Frizzel – past Union & Dining Chair – year before was senator and on Environmental Affairs. Environmental Policy major – interned with Daniella Beall. Perfect fit for this position. Ideas to use Sustainability Fund: composting bins in the Marketplace. Community Garden.
- Equity and Diversity – Monica Garcia – Sheboygan location student – bigger body and student presence on this campus.
- Health and Safety – Jasmine Puls – Psychology Major with minor in Comm. Work with Title IX cases a lot – have had issues with Dean of Students and will work with them on their communication. Communication in general. Spread word more that Wellness Center is free to most students – work on spreading information.

- Intergovernmental Affairs – Isaac Erickson – Will be a junior studying Political Science. Was offered this position a year ago and wanted to take it but decided not to so could focus on academics and get that in line. Confident can do it now. Meet with Zach and talk about where he is leaving things
  - Recreation and Athletics – Riley Stiltman – SO – runs XC – great fit and want to involve self more. SAAC – find ways to bridge the gap between students and athletes – being there for athletic events.
  - Student Workers’ Rights – Tom Seidler – President of Workers and Socialists Party on campus. May Day festival this year – hope to get bigger next year. Build a strong connection between SGA and student body. Implement them to take to administration. Unionize the student workers who are here. Has talked to Jon Shelton about that.
  - Union and Dining – Ericka S. – finishing up 1st year – electrical engineering major, was on Union & Dining as a senator with Molly. Goal – hope Chartwells is not as bad next year as this year. Invite Karolynn to come to a Senate meeting in the future.
